“Aspire went beyond the normal generic recommendations that come from consultancies; they were very specific and addressed the root of the problem rather than the effect and matched them to the needs of DfT.”

Head of Centre of Excellence – Department for Transport

“The assurance review of our programme showed a thorough understanding of the complexities we faced, identified a number of fundamental issues that we weren’t aware of and provided a number of pragmatic recommendations that have really helped to put us back on course.”

Programme Director – pan European joint venture

“Aspire Europe have been the preferred supplier of programme and project management training services for the last 5 years. Their service quality is of a consistently high standard, they are quick to respond to demands and have an excellent network of trainers and coaches who always meet or exceed our expectations.”

Head of Learning and Development – South West Councils

The rate of transformation is getting faster, the challenge is to see it coming and stay ahead of the pack

The ability to identify opportunities and change direction is key to survival in the modern world. Whether it is developing a major programme or reacting to a tactical opportunity you need to be able to move quickly and effectively, but in order to deliver this you need:

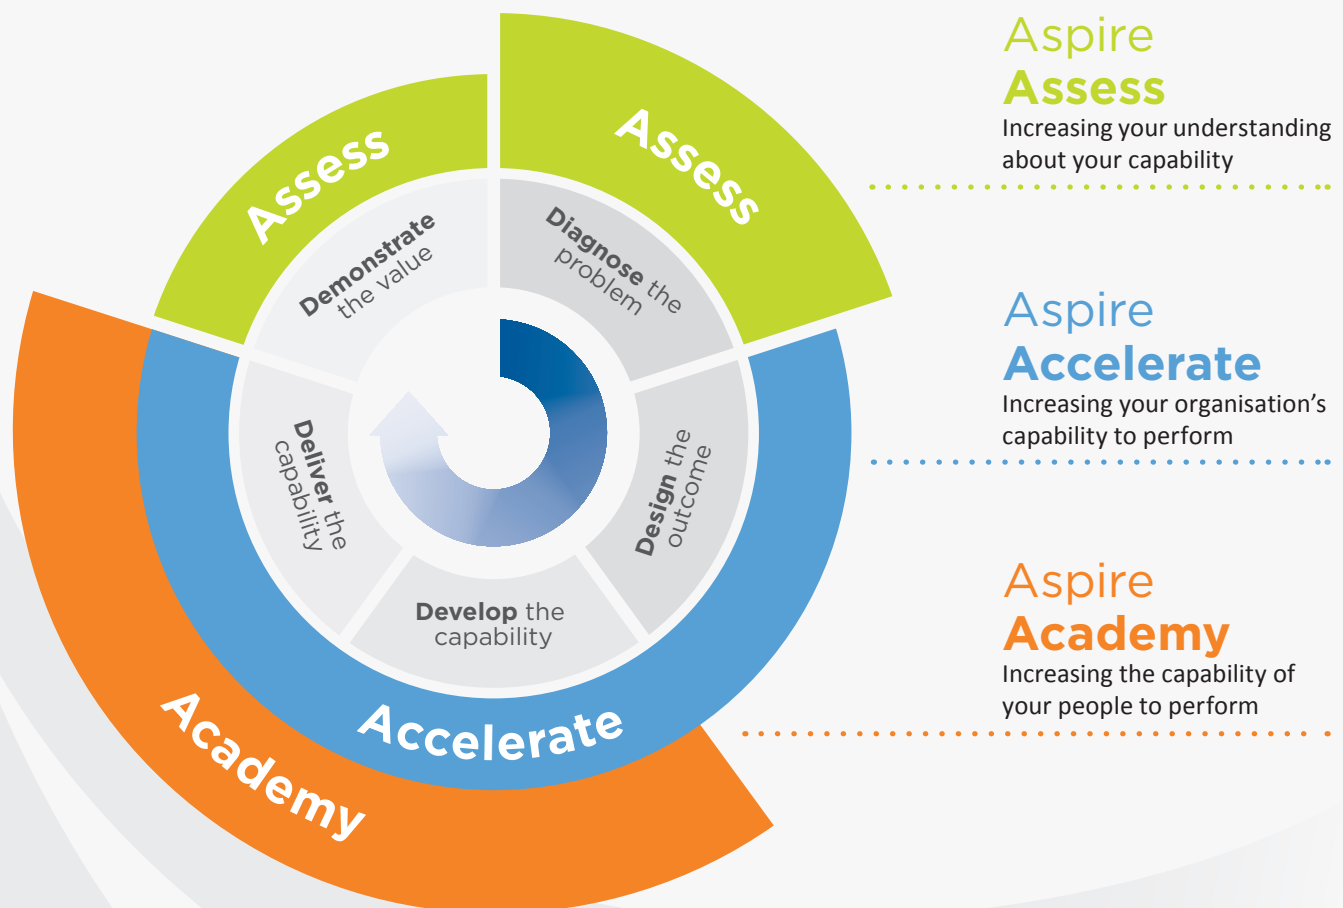

- > The right information at the right time
- > Capable staff that can proactively exploit the opportunities
- > Processes that are agile and enable, not obstruct
- > A technical environment which enables, not hinders

Make us your transformation partner.

Founded in 2004 and operating on 4 continents, Aspire Europe understands how to improve performance for your organisation. We can help bring life to your transformation strategy in a way that achieves results and puts you on the leading edge.

How we work

Our unique offering means that we can partner with you in three ways:

Aspire Assess

You want your organisation to perform at its very best – across people, processes and technology. We can assist by:

- > Helping you identify reasons to celebrate what you're good at
- > Identifying what is holding you back and how you can target your investment on effectiveness
- > Providing market leading analysis to enable industry comparison, including the largest database of P3M3® results in the world
- > Providing deep dive analysis to identify the root causes of failure or under performance

Assess services include:

- > P3M3® maturity assessments
- > Assurance reviews
- > Gate review assessments
- > Skills capability assessments
